This exceptional detached property offers a rare combination of space, privacy, independence and versatility, making it an excellent opportunity both as a large family home or multi-generational residence and as a potential boutique hotel or boutique accommodation project, subject to the relevant licences and regulations. The property occupies a generous private plot of 638 m² and offers approximately 356 m² of built space, currently distributed across four independent apartments, each with its own living accommodation and facilities. This configuration provides numerous possibilities and allows the different units to operate independently within the same property. Apartment 1 comprises one bedroom, a living-dining room, bathroom and kitchen. Apartments...(Ask for More Details!)
